Library Friends present Clutter Cleaners lecturer

■ The Friends of the Seal Beach Library will present a free lecture with Penny Lambright of Clutter Cleaners, an expert in the organization of home and workspaces. She will give hints and tips as to how to get every bit of clutter into its place. Clutter Cleaners motto is "From the front door to the back door and everything in between we get you organized." The meeting will be at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Jan. 10, in the Senior Room of the library at 707 Electric Ave. Seal Beach. The public is invited.

Seal Beach Woman's Club continues legacy

■ The Seal Beach Woman's Club was organized in 1923 and has earned an honorable place in the community. The general meetings are held on the third Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. from September to June at the Seal Beach Senior Center located at the Mary Wilson Library, 707 Electric Ave., Seal Beach. The general meetings are followed by interesting programs and a buffet luncheon. The club actively supports many community projects and environmental, educational and public service organizations. Local schools receive honors and awards from the club. Membership is open to interested women of the community. For information please contact membership chair, Barbara Blackman at (562) 431-7415.

Sunset Beach Historical Calendars on sale

■ The 2010 Sunset Beach Historical Calendars are now available. They begin with the photos of the hurricane of 1939 and go into World War II. The cost is $20 and the proceeds go toward the Sunset Beach Community Association's efforts for the community. For more information, call Pat Thies at (562) 592-1055.

Studio Cafe features bevy of guests for December

■ Studio Café, hosted by Jo Dawson is serving up an evening of holiday cheer, entertainment and information during the month of December. Guests include SBACC, Cpl. Phil Gonshak - Seal Beach Police Dept., Tim Kelsey - Seal Beach Community Services and Rec Dept., Laura Torgerson and Eric Lenahan - Seal Beach Pony League, Christy Coates - Los Al Band Boosters and a special visitor from the North Pole, Santa Claus! Musical entertainment by Eddie Montana, Christina Lynn and Laurence Sabin. Studio Café airs at 7 p.m. every Thursday on Ch-3 and various other times. To check the complete SBTv-3 program schedule, go to our new Web site address at www.sbtv3.org.

Corrections:

In the the Dec. 10 issue of the Sun Newspaper, under Crime Log on page one and 14: Sunset Beach does not own the Aquatic Park. The article should have read "Sunset Aquatic Park" not Sunset Beach Aquatic Park. Sunset Aquatic Park, according to the Thomas Guide, is in Seal Beach.

Pre-schoolers ship care packages to soldiers in Afghanistan

Hebrew Academy Pre-Schoolers recently shipped gifts to Soldiers in Afghanistan. The boxes; also containing protein bars, granola bars, nutra-grain bars, are now on their way to Sergeant Yarborough, who is in the US military, stationed in Afghanistan. Teacher Tracy, of the Academy, is a friend of Yarborough and she helped create this student project that will provide much needed items for the soldiers in Yarborough's group. "Teaching children gratitude and showing support for the people that protect us is what this is all about," Tracy said. For more information on the project please contact Teacher Chani at the Hebrew Academy at (714) 898-0051 or visit www.hebrewacademypreschool.org.
